MONROE CAPITAL

Monroe Capital Enhanced Corporate Lending Fund (MLEND)

May 2026

Summary of Risk Factors

Investing in the Fund's common shares of beneficial interest ("Shares") involves a number of significant risks. You should purchase Shares only if you can afford a complete loss of your investment. Investors should review the offering documents, including the description of risk factors contained in the Prospectus, prior to making a decision to invest in the securities described herein. The Prospectus will include more complete descriptions of the risks described below as well as additional risks relating to, among other things, conflicts of interest and regulatory and tax matters. Any decision to invest in the securities described herein should be made after reviewing such Prospectus, conducting such investigations as the investor deems necessary and consulting the investor's own legal, accounting and tax advisers in order to make an independent determination of the suitability and consequences of an investment in MLEND.

- The following information is a list of material risk factors associated with an investment in the Shares specifically, as well as those factors generally associated with an investment in the Fund. In addition to the other information contained in this communication and the Prospectus, you should consider carefully the following information before making an investment in the Shares. If any of the following events occur, the Fund's business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected. In such cases, the NAV of the Shares could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment. Along with the risks listed under the heading "Risk Factors" in the Prospectus, please also consider the following: MLEND has a limited operating history and there is no assurance that it will achieve its investment objective.
- An investment in the securities described in the Prospectus may not be appropriate for all investors and is not designed to be a complete investment program.
- Investors should not expect to be able to sell their Shares regardless of how MLEND performs.
- Investors should consider that they may not have access to the money invested for an extended period of time.
- MLEND does not intend to list its Shares on any securities exchange and does not expect a secondary market in the Shares to develop.
- Because investors may be unable to sell their Shares in MLEND, investors will be unable to reduce their exposure in any market downturn.
- MLEND intends to implement a discretionary share repurchase program, but only a limited number of Shares will be eligible for repurchase and repurchases will be subject to available liquidity and other significant restrictions. See "Share Repurchase Program" in the Prospectus.
- An investment in the Shares is not suitable for investors if access to the money invested is needed. See "Suitability Standards" and "Share Repurchase Program" in the Prospectus.
- Distributions are not guaranteed, and any distributions may be funded from sources other than cash flow from operations, including, without limitation, the sale of assets, borrowings, return of capital or offering proceeds, and there are no limits on the amounts to be paid from such sources. The likelihood that distributions are paid from sources other than cash flow from operations is higher in the early stages of the offering.
- Distributions may also be funded in significant part, directly or indirectly, from temporary waivers or expense reimbursements borne by MLEND's investment adviser, Monroe Capital BDC Advisors, LLC (the "Adviser"), or its affiliates that may be subject to reimbursement to the Adviser or its affiliates. The repayment of any amounts owed to the Adviser or its affiliates will reduce future distributions to which investors would otherwise be entitled.
- MLEND's organizational and offering expenses may be paid by the Adviser or its affiliates, other MLEND expenses may be borne by the Adviser or its affiliates, and these practices may have a smoothing effect on NAV per share, and/or distribution payment amounts.
- MLEND expects to use leverage, which will magnify the potential for loss on amounts invested in the Fund.
- MLEND qualifies as an "emerging growth company" as defined in the Jumpstart Our Business Startups Act, and MLEND cannot be certain if the reduced disclosure requirements applicable to emerging growth companies will make an investment in MLEND less attractive to investors.
- MLEND intends to invest in securities that are rated below investment grade by rating agencies or that would be rated below investment grade if they were rated. Below investment grade securities, which are often referred to as "junk," have predominantly speculative characteristics with respect to the issuer's capacity to pay interest and repay principal. They may also be illiquid and difficult to value.
- Certain Monroe funds may have investment objectives that compete or overlap with, and may from time to time invest in asset classes similar to those targeted by, the Fund. As a result, the Fund, on the one hand, and these other entities, on the other hand, may from time to time pursue the same or similar capital and investment opportunities. Monroe and the Fund's investment adviser endeavor to allocate investment opportunities in a fair and equitable manner, and in any event consistent with any fiduciary duties owed to the Fund, nevertheless, it is possible that the Fund may not be given the opportunity to participate in certain investments made by investment funds managed by investment managers affiliated with Monroe (including the Fund's investment adviser and its affiliates).
- Economic recessions or downturns could impair the Fund's portfolio companies and harm its operating results.

This sales material must be read in conjunction with the Prospectus in order to fully understand all the implications and risks of an investment in MLEND. Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the Fund and its portfolio carefully before investing. For copies of the Prospectus and/or summary prospectus, which contain this and other information, click here. Please read the Prospectus and/or summary prospectus carefully before investing.

The list above is not a complete list of Fund risks. You should rely only on the information contained in the Prospectus. The Fund has not authorized anyone to provide you with different information. You should assume that the information provided by the Prospectus is accurate as of its date.

No offering is made except by the Prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). Neither the SEC nor any state securities regulator has approved or disapproved of the securities or determined if the Prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

*MLEND seeks to invest primarily in directly originated assets, including senior secured loans, and club transactions (generally investments made by a small group of investment firms) and syndicated loans, made to or issued by a diversified set of U.S. lower middle market companies, which MLEND generally defines as companies with between $50 million and $350 million in annual revenue, $3 million and $35 million of annual net income before net interest expense, income tax expense, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA"), and/or $50 million and $250 million in annual recurring revenue ("ARR"). MLEND's investment portfolio is expected to be comprised primarily of a balanced portfolio of diversified senior secured loans to lower middle market companies with predictable and stable cash flows ("cash-flow loans") and senior secured loans to software or technology-enabled lower middle market companies that operate with between $50 million and $250 million in ARR (such loans referred to as "ARR Loans").

Weighted average portfolio coupon represents the actual effective rate that the borrower pays, inclusive of reference rate or Interest rate floor, contractual rate, and other recurring fees. All-in coupon does not include closing fees. Actual coupon earned over the life of each investment could differ materially from the coupon presented above. Coupon does not reflect the return of MLEND, which will be reduced by, among other things, fees and expenses, or the return that may ultimately be realized on this investment. Higher coupons represent high cost of capital for borrowers and such costs may increase the risk of default of the risk that the loan may otherwise become impaired...All rate information is as of March 31, 2026. Please refer to MLEND's prospectus and filings, including Form 10-Q or Form 10-K for fair value disclosures.

All figures as of April 30, 2026, unless otherwise noted. Past performance is not indicative of future returns and there is a possibility of loss with an investment in the Fund. Future performance is subject to taxation dependent on the personal situation of each investor and may change in the future. The currency of the Fund is US Dollars. Footnotes

1. This is the amount currently registered with the SEC. We may register additional shares in the future.
2. The management fee under the Advisory Agreement with the Adviser is payable monthly in arrears at an annual rate of 1.25% of the Fund's average total assets, which includes assets financed using leverage; provided, however, that no management fee will be charged on the value of the Fund's total assets that is below an asset coverage ratio of 200% calculated in accordance with Sections 18 and 61 of the 1940 Act. This has the effect of not charging management fees on the value of the portion of the Fund's total assets financed with borrowed funds or other forms of leverage in excess of regulatory leverage of 1:1 debt-to-equity.
3. During the Advisory Fee Waiver Period, which commences on the date of effectiveness of the Advisory Agreement and is scheduled to end on December 31, 2026, the Adviser has voluntarily agreed to waive a portion of the management fee such that, during the Advisory Fee Waiver Period, the management fee will be payable monthly in arrears at an annual rate of 0.95% of the Fund's average total assets, which includes assets financed using leverage.
4. During the Advisory Fee Waiver Period, the Adviser has voluntarily agreed to waive all or any portion of the incentive fee based on Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income Returns.
5. Offered on an ongoing, monthly basis. Subscription orders for purchases will be accepted on the first business day of each month. Subscription requests must be received at least ten business days before the first day of each month (unless waived by the managing dealer) and NAV will be available generally 20 business days after the effective date of the purchase.
6. Quarterly tender offers are expected but not guaranteed. See "Important Disclosure Information and Risk Factors" at the end of this presentation and MLEND's prospectus.
7. Select broker-dealers may have different suitability standards, may not offer all share classes, and/or may offer MLEND at a higher minimum initial investment than $2,500.
8. Neither the Fund nor InspereX LLC, the Fund's managing dealer, will charge an upfront sales load with respect to Class S shares, Class D shares or Class I shares; however, if you buy Class S shares or Class D shares through certain financial intermediaries, they may directly charge you transaction or other fees, including upfront placement fees or brokerage commissions, in such amount as they may determine, provided that they limit such charges to a 3.5% cap on NAV for Class S shares and a 1.5% cap on NAV for Class D shares. Please consult your selling agent for additional information. Any transaction or other fees assessed by a financial intermediary on Class S shares or Class D shares are not reflected in the above fee table.
9. The denominator used to calculate annual expenses is based on a weighted average net assets figure of $250 million. Actual net assets will depend on the number of Shares the Fund actually sells, realized gains/ losses, unrealized appreciation/ depreciation and share repurchase activity, if any. "Annual Expenses" are composed of base management fees, incentive fees, shareholder servicing and/or distribution fees, interest payments on borrowed funds ("interest expense"), and other expenses, as set forth in more detail in MLEND's prospectus. Actual expenses may be greater or less than shown and these figures should not be considered a representation of future expenses. "Other expenses" include, but are not limited to, accounting, legal and auditing fees, custodian and transfer agent fees, reimbursement of expenses to the Fund's administrator, organization and offering expenses, insurance costs, underwriting compensation paid outside of the distribution and servicing fee described above and fees payable to our Trustees, as discussed in "Plan of Operation" in MLEND's prospectus. The amount presented in the table estimates the amounts the Fund expects to pay during the initial 12-month period of its public offering of Shares.

Further, MLEND has entered into an Expense Support and Conditional Reimbursement Agreement (the "Expense Support Agreement") with the Adviser, pursuant to which, the Adviser is obligated to advance all of our Operating Expenses (each, a "Required Expense Payment") to the extent that such expenses exceed 1.00% (on an annualized basis) of the Fund's average NAV. "Operating Expenses" for this purpose means all of the Fund's operating costs and expenses incurred (including organization and offering expenses), as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for investment companies, less base management and incentive fees owed to the Adviser, shareholder servicing and/or distribution fees, and borrowing costs. Any Required Expense Payment must be paid by the Adviser to the Fund in any combination of cash or other immediately available funds and/or offset against amounts due from the Fund to the Adviser or its affiliates. The Adviser may elect to pay certain additional expenses on the Fund's behalf (each, a "Voluntary Expense Payment" and together with a Required Expense Payment, the "Expense Payments"), provided that no portion of the payment will be used to pay any interest expense or distribution and/or shareholder servicing fees of the Fund. Any Voluntary Expense Payment that the Adviser has committed to pay must be paid by the Adviser to the Fund in any combination of cash or other immediately available funds no later than forty-five days after such commitment was made in writing, and/or offset against amounts due from the Fund to the Adviser or its affiliates. The Adviser will be entitled to reimbursement of Expense Payments from us if Available Operating Funds (as defined in MLEND's prospectus) exceed the cumulative distributions accrued to the Fund's shareholders, among other conditions. MLEND borrows funds to make investments. The costs associated with such borrowing may change over time, including due to interest rates on borrowing and utilization, and will be indirectly borne by MLEND shareholders. The calculation of interest expense in the above table assumes that the Fund borrows for investment purposes an amount equal to 125% of its weighted average net assets in the initial 12-month period of the public offering of Shares, and that the average annual cost of borrowings, including the amortization of cost associated with obtaining borrowings and unused commitment fees, on the amount borrowed is 7.30%. The Fund's ability to incur leverage during the 12 months following the commencement of this offering depends, in large part, on the amount of money the Fund is able to raise through the sale of Shares and the availability of financing in the market. Although leverage has the potential to enhance overall returns that exceed MLEND's cost of funds, it will further diminish returns (or increase losses on capital) to the extent overall returns are less than MLEND's cost of funds.
10. Based on Annual Expenses as set forth above, exclusive of interest expense. See explanation above for important information.

This material is authorized only when it is accompanied or preceded by the Prospectus and must be read in conjunction with the Prospectus in order to fully understand all the implications and risks of the offering to which the Prospectus relates. Please read the Prospectus prior to making any investment decisions and consider the risks, charges, and expenses and other information described therein. Additional copies of the Prospectus may be obtained by contacting your financial adviser, by visiting EDGAR on the SEC website at http://www.sec.gov, or by visiting www.monroemlend.com.

This content, developed in conjunction with InspereX LLC ("InspereX"), should not be used as a primary basis for investment decisions and is not intended to serve as investment or fiduciary advice. These materials also contain information about Monroe and certain of its personnel and affiliates whose portfolios are managed by Monroe or its affiliates. Information about the Fund or its investment strategy is not and should not be interpreted as a guarantee of future performance. Future results are subject to any number of risks and factors, many of which are beyond the control of the Fund, its investment adviser, or its managing dealer/distributor. In addition, an investment in the Fund will be discrete from an investment in any other fund or account managed by Monroe (a "Monroe Fund") and will not be an investment in Monroe. As such, neither the realized returns nor the unrealized values attributable to one Monroe Fund are directly applicable to an investment in any other Monroe Fund. Funds may engage in speculative investment practices such as leverage, short-selling, arbitrage, hedging, derivatives, and other strategies that may increase investment loss. Investors may suffer the loss of their entire investment. In addition, in light of the various investment strategies of such other Monroe Funds, it is noted that such other investment programs may have portfolio investments inconsistent with those of the Fund.

Monroe Capital BDC Advisors, LLC serves as the Fund's investment adviser (investment adviser). The Adviser's Investment Committee for MLEND (the "Investment Committee") is responsible for making investment decisions for the Fund's portfolio. InspereX LLC, member FINRA/SIPC, is the managing dealer for the Fund. InspereX LLC is not affiliated with any entities identified in this communication.

Additional Important Disclosures

This material was not created by any third-party registered broker-dealers or investment advisers who are distributing shares of the Fund (each, a "Dealer"). The Dealers are not affiliated with the Fund and have not prepared the material or the information herein.

Investments mentioned in this material may not be in the best interest of, or suitable for, all investors. Any product discussed herein may be purchased only after an investor has carefully reviewed the Prospectus and executed the subscription documents. Alternative investments often are speculative, typically have higher fees than traditional investments, often include a high degree of risk and are in the best interest of, or suitable for, eligible, long-term investors who are willing to forgo liquidity and put capital at risk for an indefinite period of time. They may be highly illiquid and can engage in leverage and other speculative practices that may increase volatility and risk of loss.

Although certain loans in which the Fund may invest will be secured by collateral, there can be no assurance that such collateral could be readily liquidated or that the liquidation of such collateral would satisfy the borrower's obligation in the event of non-payment of scheduled interest or principal.

Opinions expressed herein reflect the current opinions of Monroe as of the date appearing in the materials only and are based on Monroe's and/or the Fund's opinions of the current market environment, which is subject to change.

Certain information contained in this material discusses general market activity, industry or sector trends, or other broad-based economic, market or political conditions and should not be construed as research or investment advice. Further, opinions expressed herein may differ from the opinions expressed by a Dealer and/or other businesses or affiliates of a Dealer. This is not a "research report" as defined by FINRA Rule 2241 and was not prepared by the research departments of a Dealer or its affiliates.

InspereX LLC is a member of FINRA and is a broker-dealer who has been engaged by the Fund to distribute Shares. InspereX provides services to the Fund, not to investors in the Fund, and does not make any recommendation regarding, and will not monitor, any investment in the Fund. As such, when InspereX presents the Fund to an investor, InspereX does not collect the information necessary to determine, and InspereX does not engage in a determination regarding, whether an investment in the strategy or product is in the best interests of, or is suitable for, the investor. You should exercise your own judgment and/or consult with a professional advisor to determine whether it is advisable for you to invest in any Monroe strategy or product. Please note that InspereX may not provide the kinds of financial services that you might expect from another financial intermediary, such as overseeing any brokerage or similar account.

Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. An investment in the Fund involves a high degree of risk and therefore should only be undertaken by qualified investors whose financial resources are sufficient to enable them to assume these risks and to bear the loss of all or part of their investment. The Fund and Monroe do not guarantee any level of return or risk on investments and there can be no assurance that the Fund's investment objective will be achieved.

An investment in the Fund should be considered illiquid. An investment in the Fund is not suitable for investors who need access to the money they invest. Although the Fund may offer to repurchase a limited amount of its shares via quarterly tender offers, the Fund's shares will not be redeemable, transferable or otherwise exchangeable at an investor's option. As a result, an investor may not be able to sell or otherwise liquidate its shares. There can be no assurance that the Fund will conduct tender offers in any particular period and investors may be unable to tender their shares for repurchase for an indefinite period of time.

Alternative investments involve complex tax structures, tax inefficient investing, and delays in distributing important tax information. Individual funds have specific risks related to their investment programs that will vary from fund to fund. Investors should consult their own tax and legal advisors as Dealers generally do not provide tax or legal advice. BDCs are generally not taxed at the corporate level to the extent they distribute all of their taxable income in the form of dividends. Ordinary income dividends are taxed at individual tax rates and distributions may be subject to state tax. Each investor's tax considerations are different and consulting a tax advisor is recommended. Any of the data provided herein should not be construed as investment, tax, accounting or legal advice. Interests in alternative investment products are distributed by the applicable Dealer and (1) are not FDIC-insured, (2) are not deposits or other obligations of such Dealer or any of its affiliates, and (3) are not guaranteed by such Dealer and its affiliates. Each Dealer is a registered broker-dealer or investment adviser, not a bank.

Additional Important Disclosures

Conflicts of Interest. There may be occasions when the Fund's investment adviser and its affiliates will encounter potential conflicts of interest in connection with the Fund's activities including, without limitation, the allocation of investment opportunities, relationships with Monroe's and its affiliates' advisory clients, and the diverse interests of such any such entity's limited partner group. There can be no assurance that Monroe will identify, mitigate, or resolve all conflicts of interest in a manner that is favorable to the Fund.

Use of Leverage. MLEND intends to borrow money. If returns on such investment exceed the costs of borrowing, investor returns will be enhanced. However, if returns do not exceed the costs of borrowing MLEND performance will be depressed. This includes the potential for MLEND to suffer greater losses than it otherwise would have. The effect of leverage is that any losses will be magnified. The use of leverage involves a high degree of financial risk and will increase MLEND's exposure to adverse economic factors such as rising interest rates, downturns in the economy or deteriorations in the condition of the Investments. This leverage may also subject MLEND and its investments to restrictive financial and operating covenants, which may limit flexibility in responding to changing business and economic conditions. For example, leveraged entities may be subject to restrictions on making interest payments and other distributions.

Target Leverage. The target leverage contained herein is provided for illustrative purposes only as a statement of investment objective and is not intended to serve as, and must not be relied upon by any person as, a guaranty, an assurance, a prediction of a definitive result or as a statement of fact or to imply a probability that any target leverage will be achieved or met. Actual events and circumstances are difficult or impossible to determine and may differ from assumptions. No representation or warranty is made as to the reasonableness of the assumptions made with respect to determining target leverage or that all assumptions used in determining target leverage have been stated or fully considered. Actual Fund leverage will depend on, among other factors, future operating results, the value of the Fund's assets and market conditions at the time of disposition, legal and contractual restrictions, any related transaction costs and the timing and manner of sale, all of which may differ from our assumptions. The actual leverage may differ materially from the target leverage described herein.

Debt Securities. Debt and structured equity investments in highly leveraged companies involve a high degree of risk with no certainty of any return of capital. The debt securities in which MLEND may invest may be unsecured and subordinated to substantial amounts of senior debt, all or a portion of which may be secured, may not be protected by financial covenants or limitations on additional debt, may have limited liquidity and may not be rated by a credit rating agency.

Competitive Debt Environment. The Fund competes with the public debt and equity markets and with other investors for suitable investment opportunities. There can be no assurance that the Fund's investment adviser will be able to locate and complete investments, fully invest the Fund's capital or satisfy its rate of return objectives.

Non-US Investments. Investments in non-U.S. companies involve risks not typically associated with the more developed U.S. capital markets, including risks relating to currency exchange, differences between the U.S. and foreign securities markets, differences in corporate and creditors' rights laws and economic and political risks.

Financial Markets. Instability in the securities markets may increase the risk inherent in MLEND's investments in that the ability of portfolio companies to refinance or redeem debt and structured equity securities held by MLEND may depend on their ability to sell new securities in the market.

No Assurance of Investment Return. There can be no assurance that the Fund will be able to generate returns for investors or that the returns will be commensurate with the risks of investing in the type of companies and transactions described herein. Accordingly, an investments in the Fund should only be considered by persons who can afford a loss of their entire investment. Past activities or investment return results of investment entities associated with the Monroe Capital management team or its principal members, including their prior funds, provide no assurance of future success or return results. The fees and expenses charged in connection with an investment in MLEND may be higher than the fees and expenses of other investment alternatives and may offset profits.
